Quick, Inexpensive Classified Advertising Revised tariff and terms

If you have been missing Legal People's weekly faxes and emails, you will appreciate that this is due to firms contracting in the current economic climate.

However, we feel that the contact information we have is invaluable to those wishing to advertise and have now put together a simpler tariff (with simplified advertising terms) for firms looking for locums or wishing to sell their practice.

Of course, if you are looking for new employees we can also offer the same simplified rates and terms. Please do not hesitate to contact us for further information.
